

WHEN THE SKY'S THE LIMIT, ANYTHING IS POSSIBLE

ROYAL CARIBBEAN INTERNATIONAL BEGINS COUNTDOWN TO LAUNCH OF PROJECT GENESIS WITH FIRST REVEAL

Miami, April 15, 2008 – After much anticipation for details on Project Genesis, Royal Caribbean International today announced the first of many neighborhoods that will encompass this new ship launching in late 2009. This first announcement is just the beginning of Royal Caribbean's brand promise to provide guests with more choices, more amenities and more 'WOW' experiences to create the perfect cruise vacation. The neighborhood, called Central Park, is a new element and will be revolutionary in its design, as the center of the ship opens to the sky and features lush, tropical grounds spanning the length of a football field. The creation of distinctive neighborhoods is an original concept for the cruise line and will provide vacationers with the opportunity to seek out relevant experiences in various locales based on their personal style, preference or mood. Details of Central Park are as follows:

- 254 Park view balcony staterooms (4 wheelchair accessible)
- 80 Park view window staterooms
- 7 restaurants, cafés and bars
 - 150 Central Park
 - Giovanni's Table
 - Central Park Café
 - Chops Grille
 - Vintages wine bar
 - Canopy bar
 - Rising Tide bar
- Boutique shops and outlets showcasing upscale merchandise including:
 - The Parkside Gallery, with original artwork for purchase, and Picture This, a portrait studio
- Landscaped with tropical foliage, including seasonal flowers, shrubs and trees
 - The Pergola Garden – interpretive plant garden featuring vegetation from Caribbean locales
 - The Sculpture Garden – integrates artwork from international artists
 - The Chess Garden – provides large scale pieces for a game of chess or checkers
- On-site horticulturist

When she launches in late 2009, Project Genesis will be the largest and most revolutionary cruise ship in the world. An architectural marvel at sea, she will span 16 decks, encompass 220,000 GRT, carry 5,400 guests, and feature 2,700 staterooms. The ship will sail from her home port in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. In 2010, she will be joined by a sister ship. Additional information is available at www.royalcaribbeangenesi.com.
